Opportunity Summary:
This program is designed to provide financial assistance for non-profit organizations in the U.S. and Canada that aim to introduce Japanese performing arts to local audiences.

PAJ Touring Grants help present Japanese performing arts at multiple locations in the United States and Canada, with an emphasis on locations outside major metropolitan areas where there is little exposure to Japanese performing arts.

PAJ Collaboration Grants facilitates the collaboration of Japanese and American/Canadian artists so that they may create a new work through research, residencies, artists’ discussions etc. with the potential to develop into a touring project and further an appreciation of Japanese culture when presented to audiences in the United States and Canada.

Eligibility & Requirements:
- The purpose of the proposed project must be to present Japanese performing arts and/or to conduct performing arts collaboration between Japanese and American/Canadian artists.
- The proposed project must explicitly include educational and/or community outreach activities that enhance the audience’s appreciation of Japanese culture.
- The proposed project must be undertaken by professional artists.
- The proposed project must take place between July 1, 2019 and June 30, 2020.
- The proposed project must not be used for religious or political purposes.
- For tours, the proposed project must tour to at least two locations outside New York and Los Angeles. Multiple venues in the same city are considered to be one location.
- For collaborations, the proposed project must be a new work jointly explored and created by Japanese artists and American/Canadian artists.
- PAJ will not fund more than 50% of the project costs, nor will it fund the overhead and administrative costs of the applicant organization.
