Deadline:
Internal Application: October 18, 2018
Full Application: December 4, 2018

Opportunity Summary:
The Clinical, Translational and Outcomes Research Awards in Liver Diseases are two-year awards intended to foster career development for individuals performing clinical research, translational research, or outcomes research in a liver-related area and who have shown commitment to excellence at an early stage of their research study. The awards ensure that a significant portion of young investigator’s time is protected for research, with an overall objective of enabling young investigators to develop independent and productive research careers in liver disease.

Eligibility & Requirements:
- Applicant must be within the first five (5) years of his/her first faculty appointment at the start of the award (July 1, 2019).
- If funded, at least 50% effort will be devoted to the research project on which this application is based.
- The applicant must be a member of the American Association for the Study of Liver Diseases (AASLD) at the time of award application and maintain active membership for the duration of the award period.
- Applicant must have a mentor or co-mentor who is an AASLD member in good standing at the time of application and for the duration of the award period.
- The funded research project must be conducted at the sponsoring institution.
- Applicants who hold other similar research awards (including but not limited to NIH K08, K23, R21; Veterans Administration Merit Review Grant or Career Development Award; AGA Research Scholar Award; Glaxo Institute of Digestive Health Award; American Liver Foundation Liver Scholar Award, etc.) are not eligible.

Internal Nomination Process:
Interested applicants should submit the following documents:

1. JHU Limited Submission Cover Sheet
2. Proposal (maximum of two pages of text only, single spaced: 12-pt font and one-inch margins) (Note: figures, tables, and other reference material may be included in addition to the 2 pg. text limit)
3. Curriculum Vitae of investigator, including current external research support and publications
