Opportunity Summary:
The NSF Research Traineeship (NRT) program is designed to encourage the development and implementation of bold, new, and potentially transformative models for STEM graduate education training. The NRT program seeks proposals that explore ways for graduate students in research-based master’s and doctoral degree programs to develop the skills, knowledge, and competencies needed to pursue a range of STEM careers.

The program is dedicated to effective training of STEM graduate students in high priority interdisciplinary research areas, through the use of a comprehensive traineeship model that is innovative, evidence-based, and aligned with changing workforce and research needs. Proposals are requested in any interdisciplinary research theme of national priority, with special emphasis on two high priority areas:
1. Harnessing the Data Revolution (HDR) and

To respond to solicitation-specific questions, the NRT Program will host open-forum Q&A sessions with NRT program directors. The first session will be on November 15, 2018, 1:30 – 2:30 pm EST. Dates and instructions for joining the Q&A sessions can be accessed here.
