Opportunity Summary:
The Office of Citizen Exchanges, Youth Programs Division, of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) announces an open competition for a cooperative agreement to manage the FY 2019 Overseas Components of the Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study (YES) program. The FY 2019 Overseas Components cooperative agreement will fund the recruitment, selection, orientation, travel, liaison activities with natural parents, and alumni support for the international students.

The YES program provides approximately 885 scholarships annually for high school students from countries of strategic importance to the United States and is designed to support long-range U.S. foreign policy priorities by giving foreign youth firsthand experience in the United States and increasing understanding between Americans and people from selected countries.

Eligibility & Requirements:
• Proposed programs may not include multiple academic year exchanges.
• Proposals must identify sub-award recipients and include letters of commitment from implementing partners.

Internal Nomination Process:
Interested applicants should submit the following documents:

1. JHU Limited Submission Cover Sheet
2. Proposal (maximum of two pages of text only, single spaced: 12-pt font and one-inch margins) (Note: figures, tables, and other reference material may be included in addition to the 2 pg. text limit)
3. Curriculum Vitae of investigator, including current external research support and publications
4. Budget (two pages maximum)
