Deadlines:
Internal Application: March 19, 2019
Full Application: April 9, 2019

Opportunity Summary:
The Information Office (IO) (hereinafter known as IO Islamabad), in the Public Affairs Section (PAS) of the U.S. Embassy Islamabad of the U.S. Department of State, invites all eligible organizations to submit proposals for grants to provide training to media professionals through two (2) projects specified in this NOFO.

Project 1: Reporting on Cross-Border Issues of Mutual Concern
This Track II project will bring together journalists from India and Pakistan to develop stories on cross-border issues of mutual concern to both countries. The award floor is $300,000; the award ceiling is $600,000.

Project 2: Journalism Ethics for Television Broadcasters
Pakistan television news has grown exponentially since independent channels were first allowed less than two decades ago. As the number of television stations has multiplied, stations have veered toward sensationalism, every story is a breaking news story and speed sometimes triumphs over accuracy. The award floor is $60,000; the award ceiling is $125,000.

Eligibility & Requirements:
No PI limits.
