Under this Cooperative Agreement, the recipient will support month-long U.S.-based performance tours by three-to-six influential performing arts ensembles from strategically significant countries. The program brings outstanding artists to the United States from strategically significant countries for month-long tours, community engagement, and professional development activities.

In addition to the U.S. based tours, the initiative will send approximately 24 U.S. arts presenters and performing arts professionals overseas for up to two weeks to conduct preplanning trips and conduct workshops to share U.S. professional standards in the creative industries.

Theme 2: Hip Hop Collaboration (Next Level) $1,100,000, to fund the Next Level program that will send approximately 20-24 American professional hip hop artists overseas to approximately five-to-six countries to lead two-week exchange programs that engage youth, explore conflict resolution strategies, and support arts entrepreneurship.
