Opportunity Summary:

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) is accepting applications for the fiscal year (FY) 2022 Health and Public Safety Workforce Resiliency Technical Assistance Center (HPSWRTAC).

The purpose of this program is to provide tailored training and technical assistance (TA) to the recipients of Health and Public Safety Workforce Resiliency Training Program (HRSA-22-109) and Promoting Resilience and Mental Health Among Health Professional Workforce (HRSA-22-110) to establish, enhance and expand the capacity and infrastructure to rapidly deploy evidence-informed or evidence-based innovative strategies that promote mental and behavioral health, prevent suicide, as well as reduce burnout and substance use occurrences among providers, health care professionals, health care students, residents, professionals, paraprofessionals, trainees, public safety officers and employers of such individuals. HRSA's health and public safety workforce resiliency grant recipients have a special focus on the workforce in rural and medically underserved communities.

The HPSWRTAC supports the HRSA Bureau of Health Workforce's (BHW) priority on behavioral health by improving the quality of training and increasing access to care through partnerships and linkages to reduce and address burnout, suicide, mental health conditions and substance use disorders and promote resiliency among health care professionals.
